Re: Grant v. Greenberg Taurig, LLP (Index No. 14-CV-1742)

Dear Judge Orenstein:

This firm represents the Plaintiff in the above referenced matter. During our last status conference, the parties were asked if we would be willing to have a settlement conference before depositions went forward. I am writing to advise the court that after consulting with our clients, both parties have agreed that a settlement conference would be appropriate at this juncture. For the Court's convenience, I want to advise you that both parties are available February 12th and 24th—including the Defendant's in-house counsel who will be travelling to New York for the conference. The parties are also amenable to scheduling the conference sometime in March, as well. My adversary, Justin Chu, joins me in this request.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Katrina M. Jones
